

Alysha Valenti

Alysha Valenti is Executive Vice President and Chief Legal Officer of Oxford Properties, a leading global real estate investor, asset manager and business builder. She is responsible for leadership of Oxford's corporate and transaction legal functions and the global legal team.

A member of Oxford's Executive Committee and Investment Committee, Alysha also serves on the OMERS Sustainable Investing Committee.

Alysha has provided leadership on over $10 billion in global transactions since joining Oxford in 2012. Prior to her current role she led a team of lawyers in North America and was seconded as Business Manager (Chief of Staff) to the CEO of OMERS, where she worked on strategic matters across the enterprise and represented OMERS as a member of the G7 Investors Leadership Network.

Before joining Oxford, Alysha was a partner in the real property group at a national Canadian law firm.

Alysha holds a Bachelor of Arts (Honours) from Huron University College at Western University, and a Bachelor of Laws from Western University, and lives in Toronto.