

Dean Hopkins

Dean Hopkins is Executive Vice President and Chief Operations Officer of Oxford Properties, a leading global real estate investor, asset manager and business builder. His role is to help design and enable the real estate company of the future by evolving a wide variety of capabilities, systems, processes, and information necessary to support a rapidly growing, global platform.

Dean is a member of Oxford's Executive Committee and is Chair of the Operations Committee.

Prior to joining Oxford, Dean was the Chief Executive Officer of a scale up hub established to help entrepreneurial technology companies through periods of substantial growth. Before that he spent a decade advising a leading multi-national media conglomerate on global transformation, and a decade founding and growing a pioneer in internet strategies. Dean began his career as a business analyst at a leading global management consultancy.

Dean holds a Bachelor of Applied Science (Systems Design Engineering) from the University of Waterloo, and lives in Toronto.
